MEET OUR NEW GENERAL MANAGER, ANNE BUSFIELD.

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Anne Busfield in the capacity of General Manager.

With over 30 years of experience in the hospitality industry, Anne brings with her a wealth of knowledge and expertise gained during her various positions across the globe. Having worked with InterContinental Hotels & Resorts since 2014, Anne is no stranger to the IHG® family. Prior to this appointment, Anne was in Osaka holding the position of Area General Manager at ANA Crowne Plaza Osaka and ANA Crowne Plaza Chitose.

Throughout her career that has spanned for over three decades, she held different leadership roles and worked her way up through various hotel brands based in Australia, Hong Kong, Philippines, Brunei, Thailand, Fiji, and Japan. Starting her career as Hospitality Executive at Lancaster hotel London, she later transitioned to Sales Manager and continued exploring new challenges in many roles such as Regional Director of Marketing, Corporate Director of Marketing, Hotel Manager, and for the past 18 years as General Manager.

Recognised for her passion and commitment, Anne will lead the team at InterContinental Doha The City to achieve strategic growth, revenue as well as further enhance guest experience to ensure the hotel becomes the preferred choice of travellers in the region.

Speaking of the appointment, Anne said: “Becoming part of this amazing team is a wonderful opportunity for me. The quality of the service, hotel and the team are second to none and I’m thrilled that I can use my experience to deliver true hospitality. On a global front, Qatar is in spotlight with the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™ and this is a crucial year for the hospitality industry as well as the country alike which makes it an exciting time to be here”.

We are delighted to have Anne join the winning team at InterContinental Doha The City!
